

“SPANISH SOCIETY OF PLANT PHYSIOLOGY” AWARD TO THE BEST SCIENTIFIC COMMUNICATIONS PRESENTED BY DOCTORAL STUDENTS

Description

The Spanish Society of Plant Physiology offers two awards of 200€ and 150€ to the best communications (first prize and accesit, respectively) presented in FV2019 by doctoral students.

Eligibility criteria

- a) Candidates must be doctoral students before March 31.
- b) The Communications presented by the candidates must meet the following requirements:
 - The presenting (first) author of the communication should be the candidate for the award.
 - Majority of the content of the communication should be unpublished before 31 December, 2018.

How to apply

Candidates must submit to FV2019 their communications online before March 31, 2019, indicating their interest to concur for the “Spanish Society of Plant Physiology” awards to the best FV2019’s communications by a doctoral student.

Jury and qualification criteria

- The Jury will be composed of 5 scientists selected by the SEFV’s Board of Directors.
- Irrespective of the fact that a communication has been selected for oral presentation in FV2019, all candidates must present their communications as posters to be evaluated by the jury.

- The Jury will evaluate the communications during poster views. Candidates should be present in front of the poster during the evaluation.
- The Jury will assess the quality of the Communications and rank them. The communication with the highest rank will be the winner.
- The Jury decision will be unappealable.
- The Jury decision will be made public during the Closing Ceremony, and the winner must be present to collect the award. Should the winner be not present in the Closing Ceremony, the award will go to the next candidate in rank.
- Candidates participation implies full acceptance of the bases of the Award Call.
